OUR EXTENDED FAMILY

At Blue Q, we're about the products, but maybe more than that we're about the people. We love getting to know people and working with people and laughing and building with people. We love that every person works in a slightly different way, and putting together a great team is a bit like solving a puzzle. And we love that at the end of the day, our cups are filled up with silly jokes and warm glances and kinetic connections.

We have an amazing crew right here in Pittsfield, but our extended team — like an extended family — hails from New York City, Los Angeles, São Paulo, Tokyo and about a hundred other places around the globe. That team is made up of the artists and designers on this page (plus a bunch more!) who bring our products to life every day. They're some of the most talented and thoughtful folks around, and almost everything we make goes out to one of their desks. Then, after a game of sketch-and-color ping-pong, it comes back better than we could have ever imagined.

Just like with our in-house staff, we want to make sure the artists we work with are taken care of. So every artist's project starts with a base design fee. And once those magic moments make their way onto your shelves, they also get a percentage of sales. Because it's great to have successes, but it's way more fun to share them.

Without this group of artists, Blue Q literally wouldn't be here. Without their creative input, we would have ended up a one- or two-hit wonder. But they are here, and we're eternally grateful for it. They make our days at work not just possible, but a whole lot better. And we hope we offer the same to them.

WE'RE ALL IN THIS TOGETHER!

GIVING AT BLUE Q

Blue Q feels strongly that it's our responsibility as a business to help make the world a little better.

We know even small companies like ours can make a big difference and that's why Blue Q proudly contributes 1% of sales from our best-selling categories to organizations that further the good work we believe in. That's 1% of sales, not profits, by the way. In fact, it's built right into our costing sheet. At this point, we won't make something without considering its charitable impact.

Of course, we don't want to be limited to one fight, when there are so many worthy causes out there. So we spread the love around to support humanitarian aid, environmental initiatives and social justice efforts around the globe. All three are equally important, not just to the world but to Blue Q as an engaged and compassionate company.

That said, money isn't everything. It's important to us to form sincere, ongoing relationships with larger organizations like Doctors Without Borders, and to get out there and help our local groups — The Housatonic Valley Association, Habitat for Humanity or our local humane society, to name a few — by participating in community initiatives like block parties, soap box derbies and clean-up projects.

Our hope is that, as we do our part to support these critical causes, we inspire customers and even other businesses to follow suit. Because we can't do it alone, but if we all join in the effort we can make some real change.

HAVE YOU MET OUR SALES REPS?

Oh, you just gotta! They're all across the US & Canada. They know your neighborhood. And they care about your store. That's what it takes to run our territory protection program, helping coordinate where Blue Q is sold — making sure your special store stays special.

To talk to your local rep email us at sales@blueq.com

WANNA SELL BLUE Q?

We can totally see Blue Q in your store, can't you? To get things rolling, please complete our wholesale application at www.blueq.com/wholesale and click I want to sell Blue Q.

Applications are reviewed Monday–Friday, 8:30–5:00 ET. If you submit after hours, know that we won't be able to respond till we're back at our desks.

All new customers and selling locations must be approved by the local sales rep and Blue Q.

WANNA PLACE AN ORDER?

Minimum opening order: $250

Reorder minimum: $150

Current accounts: Just contact your local sales rep (US and Canada). Our reps rock!

To get your local sales rep's contact info, call or email us at sales@blueq.com.

Blue Q doesn't offer online wholesale ordering, but many of our rep groups do!

DON'T FORGET TO GIVE US YOUR EMAIL ADDRESS!

We've gone paperless. We need your email address with every order so we can email you your invoice. (By the way, we can send to more than one email address.) Really, we can't ship your order without your email, so please don't forget!

SHIPPING

All US orders* ship via UPS Ground unless another method is specified. We add shipping to invoices at cost, and ship all orders from our Pittsfield, Massachusetts warehouse.

*NOTE: Orders to Hawaii, Puerto Rico and Alaska can ship via UPS 2nd Day Air, UPS Ground or USPS Priority Mail. Blue Q offers a 40% freight discount on UPS 2nd Day Air and a 20% discount on UPS Ground.

OH YES, WE CANADA.

We ship to Canada using UPS Consolidated service, with all duty and clearance charges paid by Blue Q! We invoice all orders shipped to Canada in Canadian dollars.

MAIL PAYMENTS TO:

Blue Q Accounts Receivable
703 West Housatonic St.
Pittsfield, MA 01201 USA

CREDIT & PAYMENT

Sorry, but we cannot accept prepayment by check. We accept Visa, Mastercard, Discover and American Express for US orders. For Canadian orders, we accept Visa and Mastercard.

Or you can apply for Net 30 terms if you've been in business for at least one year under your current name. Email sales@blueq.com for a credit application. Processing time depends on your references' response time, so give us as many as you can. While credit cards are great for prepayment, they can no longer be used to pay invoices shipped on billing terms. So make sure you get that check in the mail on time! US customers can also pay via ACH. Email credit@blueq.com to find out how.

We charge a $20 fee for all returned checks.

Orders received without a valid form of payment (credit card number or billing terms) and contact info (buyer name, email and phone) are subject to cancellation. No one wants that!

If we're unable to charge your credit card, an email notification will be sent automatically. We'll try to email you twice, but the third email will be the cancellation confirmation. Please make sure we have your current email address!

Blue Q pre-authorizes your credit card for 120% of the value of the order to make sure the shipping charges are covered. After your order is packed and shipped, the exact total will be charged.

INTERNATIONAL

Outside of the US or Canada? We may have a distributor in your country. Please refer to the Wholesale section of blueq.com or email yourpals@blueq.com to find out.

PRODUCT DISPLAYS

You lucky duck! ALL Blue Q displays are free when filled!

DAMAGES

Damages or order errors must be reported within five business days of delivery. If your shipment arrives injured in any way, please email sales@blueq.com. We find photos wildly helpful.

RETURNS

We do not accept returns unless the product is defective or an error was made by Blue Q or your sales rep. Please notify us of any issues within five business days of delivery.

TERRITORY PROTECTION

It's not fun but it's important. You rely on us to safeguard your commitment. We're on it! Before we ship an order, we make sure we know where and how Blue Q will be sold.

HOW DO YOU EARN PROTECTION?

- You order through your rep! They call the shots on who carries what and where, and we rely on them to be the eyes and ears in every town. We work with the best reps in the business. Let them help!
- You have a brick-and-mortar store. Steel-and-glass works, too.
- You've bought at least $1,500 of Blue Q in the last 12 months.
- You don't sell in a location without approval. That's a big no-no and a quick way to stop being a Blue Q customer. It makes territory protection impossible. Besides, we want to include all Blue Q outlets in our Buy Locally section online, so no secrets, OK?

To discuss how you can protect your Blue Q assortment, call your rep!

WANNA SELL ONLINE?

Great! Email sales@blueq.com for a copy of our Online Seller Application and Minimum Price Policy. Approved customers can sell Blue Q on their own website, eBay and traditional social media platforms like Facebook, Instagram and TikTok.

No other third-party sites though, OK? Violation of Blue Q's online prices or policies will result in interruption or closure of your account. Yikes.

That sounds scary, but it's true. Everyone relies on everyone following the rules. So be a sport, sport.

WANNA BE IN THE BUY LOCALLY SECTION OF BLUEQ.COM?

We include your listing if your store meets the following criteria:*

- You have no overdue invoices.
- You've bought at least $750 of Blue Q in the last 12 months.
- You have a brick-and-mortar storefront.
- We ship directly from Blue Q to you.

*NOTE: Let us know the address and phone number where Blue Q will be sold. You don't want your home address or cell phone number showing up. Or maybe you do. No judgment.

THE HEART OF BLUE Q!

ARTS AND ASSEMBLY

As you'd guess, we have a busy Art Department at Blue Q.

But did you know we have two? One team coordinates Blue Q product design, and then we have our team in Arts and Assembly. They're front and center in a busy, buzzing space with a Santa's workshop vibe. Picture terrariums everywhere, huge murals with Keith Haring-esque drawings, and lots of projects made in group art classes. That's the "art" part. The "assembly" part is putting the finishing touches on zillions of Blue Q products. This team of adored individuals with and without disabilities has been at the heart of Blue Q for over twenty-five years.

WE CAN ALL TRY A LITTLE HARDER!

THINKING ABOUT SUSTAINABILITY

Here at Blue Q, we believe that if one thing matters, everything matters – from the air we breathe to the water that flows through the riverbed behind our headquarters.

The planet clearly needs some active love and healing, and it's time to really dig deep. We can all do better, Blue Q is no exception.

It's a massive undertaking, from the products we choose to make to how we run our daily operations. And as we navigate the technical and financial challenges of sustainably running a business, we admit that we sometimes fall short. But we are committed to constant improvement, and with each change we're making small improvements that collectively can have a bigger impact.

We've also started to incorporate policies that hold us accountable and push us forward at a steady clip. Since we're a small company, we don't have teams of scientists or consultants. But we do have a very small committee of enthusiastic nerds who are prepared to do our very best!

Here are just a few things we're doing:

- We're thinking about the full life cycle of each of our categories, and making sure that Blue Q products are useful, utilitarian, long-lasting gifts.
- Developing more products that turn garbage into something new, like our recycled polypropylene bags and 100% recycled polyester beanies.
- Eliminating as much plastic from our packaging as possible – and making sure that new products like our Catnip Cat Toys have no plastic packaging at all.
- Regularly reusing and repurposing materials in our office and warehouse spaces: turning broken shipping pallets into beautiful walls and scrap cardboard into priceless works of art by our colleagues in BCARC.

What's most important to us is that we're being honest with you and with ourselves. We're doing our best, asking some tough questions and keeping our eyes on the big picture.

DOCTORS WITHOUT BORDERS

Doctors Without Borders is a group of badass international humanitarian aid workers who provide lifesaving medical care to victims of war, disease, natural disaster or conflict. Their founding principle is that all people deserve free, high-quality medical care regardless of nationality, religion or creed. Of course, you've read about them and know they're a dedicated and well-oiled machine. They understand the challenges of providing care in dangerous and remote places, and they use this know-how to respond to emergencies around the world in ways few other organizations can.

Blue Q has been an active supporter of Doctors Without Borders since 2014. One percent of the sale of every Blue Q sock, dish towel and oven mitt supports their programs, and the total donation amount so far has surpassed $1.8 million.

It's worth noting that Doctors Without Borders is neutral and impartial, and currently receives less than two percent government funding internationally, which means they can respond based on needs, not agendas. Individual donors are really what make their work possible.

NOT JUST A SENSE OF HUMOR! WE ALSO HAVE A SENSE OF ... ↘

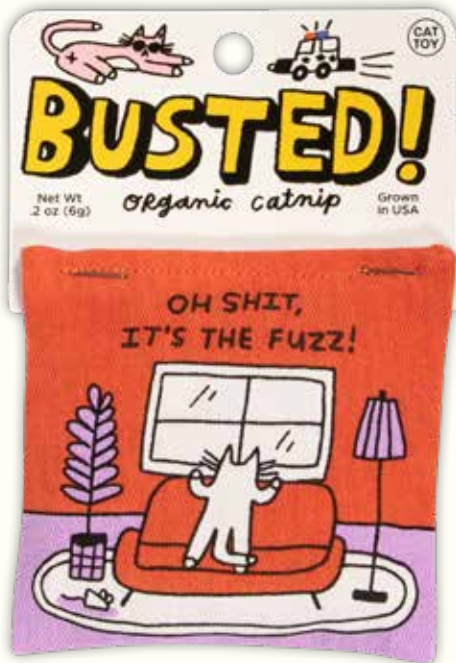

SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EQUITY

People are everything at Blue Q. Whether it's under our roof, down the street or across the globe, we aim to actively participate in our community and support those who need it most.

As such, we're committed to supporting organizations that are working to further social justice causes such as racial equity, LGBTQIA+ rights and gender disparities. One percent of the sale of every Catnip Cat Toy, beanie and Swedish Dishcloth supports these initiatives, with donations made to a rotating collection of international and local groups.

So far, we've supported the work of the Berkshire Immigrant Center, Southern Poverty Law Center, Trevor Project and Malala Fund. In addition to these donations, Blue Q has contributed funds, supplies and time to a number of hard-working, locally based organizations including the neighborhood revitalization group West Side Legends, Central Berkshire Habitat for Humanity, and the Elizabeth Freeman Center, which provides services to survivors of domestic and sexual violence and to their families.

LET'S PROTECT IT! EARTH

We're proud that Blue Q's donations support environmental initiatives, small and large, from monitoring the health of the river in our own backyard to preserving coral reefs in Indonesia.

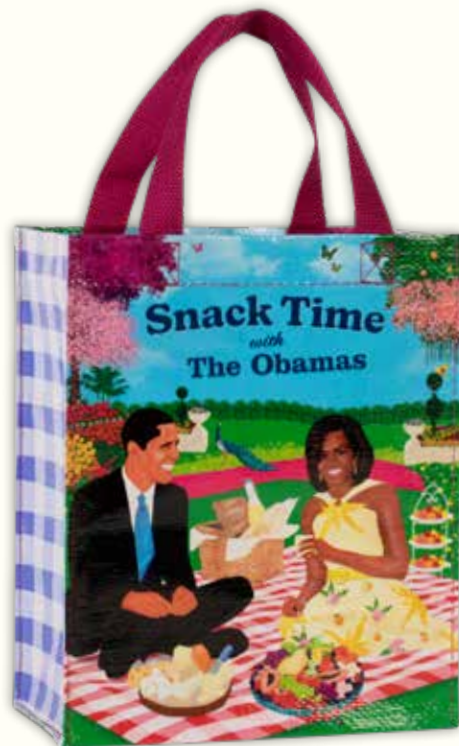

All Blue Q bags are made from 95% recycled material, and 1% of the sale from every one of them supports environmental initiatives around the globe. Donations are shared quarterly among multiple groups, who are working to solve climate change, reduce biodiversity loss, develop renewable energy, protect people and places and conserve oceans and forests.
